Contemplative Outreach Retreats

Contemplative Outreach (CO) Retreats focus on Centering Prayer and practitioners are given an opportunity to deepen their practice and relationship with God by joining with others in community for the experience of immersion in contemplative prayer apart from ordinary life. Retreats are a way to take one’s relationship with God and one’s practice deeper. They offer time and space away from the busyness and demands of daily life, and allow the mind, body, and spirit to surrender to God’s presence and action within. Retreats are a common practice in many spiritual traditions and are a valuable tool to aid one’s interior transformation.

CO Intensive Retreats include several periods of Centering Prayer daily balanced with silence and solitude. Some retreats offer viewing of the “Spiritual Journey” video series, presentations by guest speakers, group discussions, and private direction. Others encourage a more silent experience, even total silence. The retreats are hosted by trained retreat leaders and are offered over a range of formats from five to ten days.

Contemplative Outreach offers a series of consecutive retreats. They include:

- Centering Prayer Intensive Retreat
- Centering Prayer Advanced Intensive Retreat
- Centering Prayer Post Intensive Retreat

The Retreats Service Team oversees all CO retreats. One important element of this oversight is the need to ensure the consent and safety of participants at these intensive retreats, due to the opportunity for deep psychological stimulation experienced in these situations. Another important factor is to ensure the safety and legal liability limits for retreat leaders and retreat centers.

One of the major goals of the Retreats Service Team is to designate specifically the content and formats of the CO Retreats that serve as prerequisites for Servant-Leader formation within the CO community. This is key to maintaining the CO Vision and Theological Principles and ensuring the essentials of Centering Prayer are presented with integrity.
Centering Prayer Weekend Retreats

Many Centering Prayer groups offer weekend retreats once a prayer group has been established and the members express a desire to deepen the experience of their Centering Prayer periods for longer periods of time. A good Leadership Team can easily plan and conduct a weekend retreat with guidelines and consultation with their Chapter Coordinator, Contact Person or Regional Representative. Weekend retreats can be offered at a local retreat center, often beginning on a Friday evening, concluding on Sunday afternoon. Participants can stay overnight for the two nights and three days of the retreat, or they may choose to participate as a “commuter,” traveling to and from the retreat each evening and back the next day. While there are a variety of formats available, extended and multiple sessions of Centering Prayer are always offered each day. There is often an educational component; silent meals, spiritual reading, and soul-friending may also be offered. Lectio Divina can be part of the experience, as well as Welcoming Prayer if desired.

Centering Prayer Intensive Retreats

Intensive Retreats provide an opportunity to immerse participants in the practice of Centering Prayer, as taught by Contemplative Outreach. Throughout the retreat experience one becomes more immersed in the conceptual background of the spiritual practice.

The Intensive Retreat features a major educational component, but also includes up to three hours of Centering Prayer each day and two videos from the “Spiritual Journey” video series each day, focusing on Parts I, II and III of the series. Retreat leaders also read during meals from Open Mind, Open Heart by Fr. Thomas Keating.

Centering Prayer Advanced Intensive Retreats

Advanced Intensive Retreats provide an opportunity to go deeper into the practice of Centering Prayer, incorporating even more silence into the retreat experience. The Advanced Intensive Retreat includes all elements of the Intensive Retreat, but features Part IV of the “Spiritual Journey” video series. The Advanced Intensive Retreat is mid-way between the Intensive and Post-Intensive Retreat and focuses on ways to carry the practice of Centering Prayer more deeply into our daily lives. The Advanced Intensive Retreat often incorporates in-person presentations by a guest Retreat Leader.

Centering Prayer Post Intensive Retreats

Post Intensive Retreats provide an opportunity for even more intensive Centering Prayer, solitude and silence in community. The Post Intensive is much more silent, in that no videos are shown, and the Centering Prayer periods are done for thirty minutes rather than twenty minutes. All meals are in silence. Most days are spent in what is called the “grand silence,” when you are asked not to speak at all or even make eye contact. Typically most retreatants have been doing the Centering Prayer practice fairly long, so the silence can be very deep.
A Word about CO Retreats

Some commonalities exist for all CO retreats, and are noted here.

- Before attending one of these retreats, one should have an established daily practice of Centering Prayer for at least six months to one year. It is assumed one has a foundation fairly well in place and the focus of the retreats is on refinement of the Centering Prayer practice itself.

- A sequence of attendance at the retreats is highly recommended. Most benefit from attending the Intensive Retreat first, then the Advanced Intensive Retreat, and finally the Post-Intensive Retreat. Each practitioner is unique, however, and should consider one’s own needs and experience level to make a final judgment.

- Formats for CO Retreats are most often eight days. However, they are sometimes adapted to any length from five to ten days. When considering prerequisites for Servant-Leader formation, any combination of partial attendance that adds up to ten days meets the prerequisite. For example, one may attend two five-day Intensive Retreats to meet the ten-day prerequisite requirement.

- Sometimes, Intensive Retreats can be offered simultaneously with Advanced Intensive and/or Post-Intensive Retreats. This is accomplished by offering two separate tracks to individuals, depending on the personal goals of the participant. The Intensive and Advanced Intensive Retreats will have more or less presentations and group discussion, while the Post Intensive Retreat will focus more on complete silence for that individual throughout the retreat.

- CO Retreats always include periods of Centering Prayer. Many retreats focus primarily on deepening the practice of Centering Prayer through extended periods of prayer and/or additional teaching on Centering Prayer. However, retreats may also be offered that focus on the practice of Lectio Divina or Welcoming Prayer, in conjunction with Centering Prayer. The Twelve Step Outreach also conducts their own specialized retreats that focus on the needs of this special interest group.

- The practice of Lectio Divina is often used within the retreat experience. For participants who have not been introduced to this practice, a brief explanation can be given. Lectio Divina is used as a complementary practice along with the Centering Prayer periods.

- Retreats may include the option of daily Mass and/or Liturgy of the Hours, private interviews with staff, time for physical recreation, quiet reflection, and often massages.

- Retreat days and weekend retreats are not overseen by the Retreats Service Team. These short retreat experiences can be handled in your Chapter or local area by individual Coordinators, with assistance from your Regional Representative.

- The Centering Prayer Introductory Program, the Lectio Divina Introductory Program, and the Welcoming Prayer Program can be presented in a retreat experience, generally in a weekend format. Refer to the CO Resource Directory and contact your Regional Representative to find a commissioned Presenter in your local area and inquire if they are willing to do a weekend retreat format.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

For more information about hosting any of these CO Intensive Retreats in your Chapter or local area, refer to the CO Resource Directory and contact your Regional Representative or the Retreats Service Team.
Lectio Divina Retreats

CO Retreats can be conducted that feature Lectio Divina. Rather than focusing on Centering Prayer presentations and experiences, these retreats include both Centering Prayer and Lectio Divina. The retreat introduces the practice of Lectio Divina and provides opportunities to experience this practice in a community setting, and experience a deep introduction to the practice. The beauty of the retreat is that one can experience how Centering Prayer and Lectio Divina complement one another in one’s daily practice.

Refer to The Seven-Session Introduction to Lectio Divina for more information about this program. Refer to the CO Resource Directory and contact the Lectio Divina Service Team for more information. Or refer to Guidelines for The Seven-Session Introduction to Lectio Divina on the CO website.

Welcoming Prayer Retreats

CO Retreats can be conducted that feature Welcoming Prayer. Rather than focusing on Centering Prayer presentations and experiences, these retreats include both Centering Prayer and Welcoming Prayer. The retreat introduces the practice of Welcoming Prayer and provides opportunities to experience this practice in a community setting, and experience a deep introduction to the practice. One learns how to use Welcoming Prayer in one’s daily life.

Refer to Introduction to the Welcoming Prayer Practice for more information about this program. Refer to the CO Resource Directory and contact the Welcoming Prayer Service Team for more information. Or refer to Guidelines for The Introduction to the Welcoming Prayer Practice (NA-Under Revision) on the CO website.

Twelve Step Retreats

CO Retreats can be conducted using Centering Prayer in conjunction with the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous and other Twelve-Step recovery programs. This retreat focuses on how to use Centering Prayer as the Eleventh Step of the recovery program. This retreat is geared to individuals who are already part of a Twelve-Step fellowship and wish to learn about Centering Prayer and incorporate it into their recovery practice.

Refer to the Resource Handbook-RHB on the CO website for more information about this outreach. Refer to the CO Resource Directory and contact the Twelve Step Outreach Service Team for more information. Or refer to Guidelines for the Twelve Step Outreach.
Since You Asked...

Of all the Contemplative Outreach events offered to those who practice Centering Prayer, one of the most valued is the experience of a CO Intensive, Advanced or Post-Intensive Retreat. These retreats, hosted by CO Chapters and retreat centers across the country and in other parts of the world, offer a unique opportunity for stepping out of daily life for an extended period of time and surrendering to a total immersion experience of Centering Prayer in spiritual community.

As more CO Chapters offer weekend and CO Intensive retreats in their areas, and retreat teams are formed to serve these retreats, questions often arise regarding the format, staff, requirements, etc. of CO Intensive Retreats. Following are some frequently-asked questions concerning hosting CO Intensive Retreats.

Q: I feel our chapter is ready to host a retreat. Can the local Coordinator or Facilitators staff the retreat?
A: Yes, if they have previously served as an intern with experienced retreat staff on an Eight- or Ten-Day Centering Prayer Intensive Retreat and are recommended by an experienced retreat director or lead person who affirms that they are ready to serve a CO Intensive retreat.

Q: What kind of training is necessary to staff a CO Intensive Retreat?
A: A staff person must have attended an eight- or ten-day CO Intensive Retreat as a retreatant, and have served as an intern on other Intensive or weekend retreats as noted. It is assumed a retreat staff has attended the “Seven-Session Introduction to the Centering Prayer Practice,” previously viewed the “Spiritual Journey” series and has read Open Mind Open Heart, Invitation to Love and Intimacy With God. A minimum of three years Centering Prayer practice is also encouraged.

Q: How many times must one intern before being ready to be the lead staff person on an eight- or ten-day CO Intensive Retreat?
A: At least twice. Exceptions can be made if travel is an issue (i.e., overseas).

Q: Who do we inform when our Chapter is ready to host a CO Intensive Retreat?
A: The Retreat Service Team that assists with staffing, the Coordinators within your region and the CORC for publication of the retreat in the CO Newsletter.

Q: Who do we inform when our Chapter is hosting a weekend retreat?
A: Everyone within your Chapter and the Chapters within your region, especially those Chapters nearest to you.

Q: Can weekend retreats have a theme such as a Lectio Divina, Welcoming Prayer, Twelve-Step, etc.?
A: Yes. The weekend retreat can have various themes, but always include several Centering Prayer periods.
Q: How many staff persons are needed to serve retreats?
A: It is recommended to have at least one staff person for each ten retreatants.

Q: If a Retreat Service Team member is brought in to serve on a CO Intensive Retreat, who is responsible for their travel expenses and stipend?
A: The local sponsor of the retreat.

Q: Who do we contact to invite a Retreat Service Team member to serve the retreat?
A: You may invite a nearby Retreat Service Team member or contact the Retreat Service Team for assistance. If the local Chapter is not able to afford it, apply to the CORC for financial help.

Q: How do we find out what to charge for the retreat?
A: Figure all expenses, including travel expenses and stipends for staff persons, allowing some income for future events and Chapter operating expenses. Then determine what you need to charge per retreatant to cover all expenses.

Q: Some people have trouble sitting through the videos. Is it ever permissible for the staff to verbally teach the content of the “Spiritual Journey” videos on a CO Intensive Retreat?
A: When chapters or centers can’t afford or don’t care to listen to the tapes, even when divided into 30-minute segments as suggested in the Spiritual Journey transcripts, another alternative is to use the basic books from Fr. Keating: Open Mind, Open Heart or Invitation to Love. Go through the book a page or two at a time. Another option would be to read the “Spiritual Journey” transcripts chapter by chapter.

If someone is so well-versed in the material that they can present it accurately and transmit the integrity of the Centering Prayer method and its conceptual background, they can certainly do so. However, it will normally involve an immense amount of work on their part and considerable familiarity with some of the other books by Fr. Thomas Keating. It is recommended to consult with an experienced Retreat Service Team member before attempting to present all of the content of the tapes.
CO Retreat Guidelines

Purpose

To immerse participants in the practice of Centering Prayer as taught by Contemplative Outreach.

To provide an opportunity to deepen the practice of Centering Prayer and Lectio Divina in an atmosphere of profound silence, with community, and with an experience of solitude.

1. Required preparation:
   - An established daily practice of Centering Prayer for at least a year.
   - An application and a waiver. NOTE: Retreatants must sign the waiver.
   - A brochure describing in general the nature of the retreat and a schedule should be sent out to each retreatant.

2. Additional prerequisites for specific retreats:
   - CO Intensive Retreat – none
   - Advanced Intensive Post-Intensive Lectio Divina Retreats – attendance at a CO Intensive Retreat or equivalent
   - Welcoming Prayer or 12-Step Retreats – none

3. Since special problems may arise during the CO Intensive Retreats that require skilled guidance, the staff must include at least one CO Retreats Service Team member or a person approved by the local CO Coordinator or the CORC. Special care needs to be taken to provide adequate spiritual guidance in the light of the Centering Prayer practice during this retreat. Local area people may be chosen for in-service training.

4. CO Coordinators who wish to plan CO Intensive Retreat are advised to contact the CO Retreats Service Team six months to a year prior to the retreat date to arrange for a CO Retreats Service Team member and to obtain the packet of information designed to help in planning the retreat. A list of Retreats Service Team members is included in the information packet.

5. On the first night, the orientation talk should include the following points:
   - Fasting is not recommended because of the heavy demands of the retreat on the nervous system.
   - Check in with a staff person if one is on medication for psychological reasons. (This information should be on the application form and the retreatants on medication should have checked with the physician prior to the retreat.)

6. Centering Prayer periods: On each full day there are three 20-minute periods throughout the day: one early morning, one mid-morning, and one mid-afternoon. This rhythm provides an intensive contemplative experience for the average retreatant.

7. Contemplative walk: Between each 20-minute prayer period, a contemplative walk of 5-7 minutes takes place. This option helps to dissipate the restlessness that may build up as a result of remaining a long time in one position. Those who prefer to sit through the contemplative walk are free to do so.
8. Videos of the “Spiritual Journey” series (except “The Philosophical Model”) are normally shown each morning and afternoon. The videos may be divided into 30-minute segments. The first conference of the retreat, however, should be live and include a thorough review of the method of Centering Prayer. If there are newcomers, further instruction should be given to them on the first day. An optional discussion, not more than 10-15 minutes, after each video may be introduced.

9. Discussion: On alternate evenings, there may be a question/answer period to clarify the experience of Centering Prayer or the material on the videos. On other evenings, an experience of Lectio Divina may be provided.

10. Reading: Open Mind, Open Heart, beginning with Chapter 4, is read aloud at the silent meals. Contemplative teaching, unlike ordinary instruction, is a repetition of the same basic principles. The instruction does not change, but the teaching is constantly new because one is hearing it with ever-increasing understanding.

11. The Eucharist: The celebration of the Eucharist provides an opportunity through the homily to integrate the practice of contemplative prayer and its conceptual background into the mystery of Christ. If no priest is on staff, a celebrant should be carefully chosen and instructed in the spirit of the retreat. In some circumstances, it may be better to omit the Eucharistic liturgy or substitute a period of Lectio Divina in its place.

12. Silence: Silence is recommended throughout the retreat, except for the evening meal.

13. Optional Desert Day: One day may be without readings at meals or a video. In the afternoon of the Desert Day, the Centering Prayer period is optional, or may be done in private.

14. Community: Talking at meals each evening enables retreatants to get to know each other in a way that completes the bonding that takes place in silence.

15. Private interviews: Retreatants are welcome to see any designated members of the staff for soul-friending.

16. Private check-in and check-out interviews: Retreatants are interviewed on the first full day of the retreat for about 10 minutes, focusing on their Centering Prayer practice and any questions they might have regarding it. On the last full day, retreatants may be interviewed again for about 10 minutes in case they have any final questions or concerns. A staff member is assigned to specific retreatants for these interviews and should remain available to them throughout the retreat.

17. This format may be adapted to 4 or 5 days or even a weekend in places where the 10-Day or 8-Day formats are not practical.
Post-Intensive Only

18. The first day is similar to the usual schedule of the 10 Day Intensive: morning and evening conference, three 20-minute periods of Centering Prayer three times a day, a meal with conversation in the evening, and the rest of the day in silence.

19. The Grand Silence begins at the end of the first day. The presenter of the evening conference should explain the practice of the “Grand Silence” (no speaking or eye contact) and its purpose.

20. During the next four days there are three 20 minute periods of Centering Prayer three times a day. A fourth period consisting of two 20 minute periods is optional. There are no conferences except the homilies at the Eucharist. Reading at meals is omitted.

21. The sixth day may be a Desert Day. The morning is the same as the four previous days, but the afternoon is slightly modified. The periods of Centering Prayer in common are optional, there is a video in the evening, the “Grand Silence” ends after the video discussion, which means that eye contact is renewed, but speaking is postponed to the evening meal on the seventh day.
