Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer Description and Background information

A. A Chapter Event

The vision statement of Contemplative Outreach states “we embrace the process of transformation in Christ, both in ourselves and in others, through the practice of Centering Prayer”. The Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer is a Chapter sponsored event in service of this vision by preparing future presenters of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program.

The following materials are guidelines and meant to be of service in your planning and offering of a Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer in your own Chapter. Consult with the Presenter Formation Service Team to find the best way to proceed in your area or Chapter. The service team leader is Margaret Swavely and she can be contacted at mbswavely@gmail.com.

B. Planning a Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer in Your Chapter

1. Chapter leadership may determine their need to form commissioned presenters to present the Centering Prayer Introductory Program or add new presenters for your chapter.
2. Chapter leadership identifies persons (Commissioned Presenters) in the chapter who are qualified to offer a Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer for chapter members desiring to become commissioned presenters of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program. To be considered a qualified Commissioned Presenter this person has presented all 4 conferences in a Centering Prayer Introductory Workshop and has been involved in the planning of a Centering Prayer Introductory Program
3. Contact Margaret Swavely at mbswavely@gmail.com. Margaret is the service team leader for the Presenter Formation Service Team. Margaret will provide additional information and assist coordinators and contact persons in the preliminary planning of the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer in your chapter.
4. A mentor from the Presenter Formation Service Team will be assigned to work with the person(s) identified in step 2 above to provide guidance and support throughout the planning and facilitating of the formation.
5. The mentor will review and discuss various format options for offering the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer.

C. Prerequisites to offer the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer

Those who wish to offer the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer in the local chapter must meet the following prerequisites:

- Faithful to the daily practice of Centering Prayer for a minimum of three (3) years

- Have viewed the “Spiritual Journey” DVD Series or read the transcripts of the “Spiritual Journey Series”.
- Recommended by the local chapter Coordinator, Contact Person or by a member of the Chapter Support Service Team.

Note: Newly formed chapters and/or areas that are in early stages of forming a contemplative community may not yet have persons in their local area who meet the above prerequisites and are qualified to present the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer. An assigned mentor and the Coordinator/Contact Person can work together to achieve the goal of having a commissioned presenter in the local area.*

F. Basic essential components of the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer

A chapter can offer the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer when convenient for the chapter, for person(s) presenting the formation and for participants. The Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer may be offered in any local facility that meets the needs of the group or in the home of an individual if conducive to prayer and presentation.

1. Minimum of two periods of Centering Prayer each full day. Each new day of a formation should begin with a period of Centering Prayer.
2. Opening and closing interview with formation presenters and participants.
3. Formation presenters to model (present) all 4 conferences for participants
4. Practicum for all conferences by participants including presentation and feedback from formation presenters and other participants.

5. Overview of the basic practicalities for the Centering Prayer Introductory Program
6. Overview of the Presenter-In-Training and Commissioning Process

G. Presenter-in-Training Process

Following attendance at a Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer in your chapter, the Presenter-In-Training phase begins. Opportunities will be provided through the chapter for the Presenter-In-Training to offer the four conferences of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program.

- Chapter leadership and/or commissioned presenters will oversee the Presenter-In-Training phase of the formation program. Commissioned presenters from the chapter will serve as mentors for the presenters-in-training. They will offer guidance and observe the Presenter-in-Training give their presentations of the four conferences of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program. A suggested form Record of Presentations of the Four Conferences by a Presenter-in-Training can be found on page 17. This form may be used by the Presenter-in-Training to keep a record of their progress in offering the four conferences.

H. Commissioning

- Upon completion of the Presenter-in-Training phase the Chapter Coordinator/Contact Person will complete the Request for Centering Prayer Commissioning Form found on the CO website. When this form is processed the new Commissioned Presenter will have their password recoded so they will have access to the Presenter Formation and Centering Prayer materials. They will also receive a Commissioning Letter by mail. See page 14 for more detailed information.

THE INTEGRITY OF THE TEACHING OF THE CENTERING PRAYER METHOD

The integrity of the teaching of the Centering Prayer Method is presented in the Four Guidelines and its conceptual background as described in the Method of Centering Prayer brochure.

Additional practices offered by Contemplative Outreach are skillful means to bring the fruits of Centering Prayer into daily life, but are not part of the integrity of the teaching. Similarly, resources such as books, tapes, and articles are not part of the integrity, but provide vital support for the ongoing practice of Centering Prayer.

Guidelines for particular programs are most helpful when they are seen not as rules but simply as guides. They are designed to work well in most situations, but leave room for exceptions which particular circumstances may require.

Servant-leaders may notice that a certain spiritual transmission takes place during presentations of the introductory and formation workshops, and especially during retreats. The depth of one's personal commitment to God, is the basis of this transmission. It is not so much the letter of the teaching, as the being of the one who teaches that is most important.

Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer

A. A Training Program

The Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer is designed to train persons in the essentials of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program as service to the greater community of Contemplative Outreach. The Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer is a two-phase program usually leading to the participant becoming a Commissioned Presenter of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program.

B. A Discernment Process

Participants are invited to enter into a discernment process during this time of formation as a means of answering the question: "How is God calling me into contemplative service at this time in my life?"

The discernment process begins with the Application Form For Presenter Formation For Centering Prayer that encourages each participant to speak with his/her Chapter Coordinator/Contact Person and seek guidance on selecting a mentor for this contemplative service opportunity. Each participant is encouraged to enter fully into this formation experience. This formation is an opportunity to actually experience the meaning of prayer as relationship while noticing their own relationship with God grow. In a group setting the entire group will notice this growth in a very short time.

C. A Two-Phase Process

The Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer is a two-phase program usually leading to the participant becoming a Commissioned Presenter of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program .

1. Phase One - Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer

The first phase is the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer which focuses on the content of the four conferences presented in the Centering Prayer Introductory Program with the participants spending time becoming familiar with this content. They have an opportunity in a practicum to present the four conferences and receive feedback.

The practicums provide each participant an opportunity to be deeply immersed in the essentials of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program. They study and become very familiar with the the main theme of the four conferences: Prayer as Relationship, The Centering Prayer Method, Thoughts and the Use of the Sacred Word, and Deepening Our Relationship with God. They are encouraged to check their own personal centering prayer practice in view of what they are learning. Presenting the essential elements of the four conferences in a small group and receiving feedback gives them a valuable learning experience in preparation for becoming a future commissioned presenter.

At the end of the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer the participant will be asked if they choose to become a Commissioned Presenter of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program. If this is their request and the Presenter Formation Facilitator approves the participant becomes a Presenter-in-Training.

2. Phase Two - Presenter-In-Training

The Presenter-in-Training will work with their mentor and chapter leadership to have opportunities to offer each of the 4 conferences during a Centering Prayer Introductory Workshop. Depending on the process used by the chapter to schedule these workshops they may be part of a team of presenters and only give one conference presentation in each workshop or they may give more. See page 14 for more details.

D. Detailed Planning Guidelines for Phase One - Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer

The following outlines the considerations and suggested steps in planning of a Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer for a small group.

1. Establish a team.

It is recommended that a team of 2 or 3 commissioned presenters be formed to plan and lead the formation. In this document the commissioned presenters planning and leading this formation are called "Facilitators."

As commissioned presenters each team member has access to the Presenter Formation Handbook for Centering Prayer file on the CO website. Once they log on with their password they should go to the Volunteer Resources section and scroll down to the section titled "Type: Presenter Formation." The handbook is titled Presenter Formation Handbook for Centering Prayer and can be downloaded to their computers.

The file titled Additional Resources for Hosting the Centering Prayer Introductory Program should also be downloaded. This file makes references to material in the file Resource Information for Presenters-in-Training and the facilitators should be familiar with this third file.

If you do not have a mentor from the Presenter Formation Service Team, contact Margaret Swavely, the service team leader at mbswavely@gmail.com. Margaret will name a mentor to work with the team who will provide guidance and support throughout the planning and facilitating of the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer.

2. Develop a schedule - dates and times

a. Schedule breaks and meal times if appropriate

b. Topics to be included in the formation and approximate time required.

- Begin with a period of Centering Prayer (1/2 hour). If meeting for a full day a second period of Centering Prayer should be at the end.
- Opening orientation - (1/2 hour)
 - ✧ Overview of schedule and handbook
 - ✧ Discuss several topics from Section 1 of the Handbook
- Conference 1
 - ✧ Model a presentation of Conference 1 (1/2 hour)
 - ✧ Overview of the Practicum process (1/2 hour)
 - ✧ Practicum Preparation (1 hour - unless assigned as homework)
 - ✧ Practicum presentations and feedback (1/2 hour per participant - 20 minutes for presentation and 10 minutes for feedback)
If the group is large, form smaller groups of 3 or 4 participants for the practicums.

Note: If necessary for a shorter Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer, the practicum is only required for Conferences Two and Three. Participants may not be required to present Conferences One and/or Four.

- Conference 2
 - ✧ Model a presentation of Conference 2 (1/2 hour)
 - ✧ Practicum preparation (1 hour - unless assigned as homework)
 - ✧ Practicum presentations and feedback (1/2 hour per participant)
- Conference 3
 - ✧ Model a presentation of Conference 3 (1/2 hour)
 - ✧ Practicum preparation (1 hour - unless assigned as homework)
 - ✧ Practicum presentations and feedback (1/2 hour per participant)
- Conference 4
 - ✧ Model a presentation of Conference 4 (1/2 hour)
 - ✧ Practicum preparation (1 hour - unless assigned as homework)
 - ✧ Practicum presentations and feedback (1/2 hour per participant)
- Distribute copies of the file Additional Resources for Hosting the Centering Prayer Introductory Program.
- Discuss Section 4 of the Presenter Formation Handbook and reference Part B of the file Additional Resources for Hosting the Centering Prayer Introductory Program
- Discuss the Options for the Continuing Sessions of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program. See Part C in the file Additional Resources for Hosting the Centering Prayer Introductory Program.
- Closing interviews

During the closing interview each participant is given the opportunity to discuss with the Facilitator if they wish to continue the process to become a Commissioned Presenter. Occasionally a participant chooses not to become a Commissioned Presenter but is willing to serve in another capacity. Sometimes a participant will sign up for this formation to deepen their understanding of the Centering Prayer method while serving as a facilitator of a small group or to work with others in leading retreats or intensives.

If the participant wishes to continue the process leading to full commissioning and the facilitator approves they may be given the Record of Presentations of the Four Conferences by a Presenter-in-Training (see page 17 for the suggested form or develop another one).
- Review the Presenter-in-Training process required to complete the training to become a commissioned presenter.

The Presenter-in-Training will work with their mentor and chapter leadership to have opportunities to offer each of the 4 conferences during a Centering Prayer Introductory Workshop. Depending on the process used by the chapter to schedule these workshops they may be part of a team of presenters and only give one conference presentation in each workshop or they may give more. See page 14 for more details.

3. Identify and secure a location.
4. Develop a budget.
5. Send the Application Form For Presenter Formation For Centering Prayer (see page 16 for a suggested form) to prospective participants.
6. Verify that the applicant has met the prerequisites.

When the completed applications are received verify the applicant has met the prerequisites. The preferred way for an applicant to view the Spiritual Journey Series is during an Intensive retreat. If the applicant cannot attend an Intensive because of distance and has participated in four silent Centering Prayer retreats they may read the transcripts of the Spiritual Journey Series. Audio recordings are also available on the Contemplative Outreach website store.

Note: If a retreat site is hosting a Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer, they are asked to contact Margaret Swavely, the Presenter Formation service team leader at mbswavely@gmail.com and provide the dates of this event. If someone other than the Presenter Formation facilitator(s) receives the applications for the formation the recommendation "by a chapter Coordinator/Contact Person or a member of the Chapter Support Service Team" should be in writing.

7. Prepare the materials. The first page of the Presenter Formation Handbook gives instructions for printing and assembling the handbook. There are also instructions for obtaining all other materials required.

NOTE: The former file titled "Post-Reading for Presenter-in-Training" has been updated and divided into two files. A description of the contents of the two files follow. You may print out a copy of the files and distribute them to the participants at the end of the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer or you may choose to email copies of the files to the participants. The participants can then choose to print out the files if they want.

Additional Resources for Hosting the Centering Prayer Introductory Program - 2019

Included in the file "Additional Resources for Hosting the Centering Prayer Introductory Program - 2019" are resources to consult when preparing to present in a Centering Prayer Introductory Workshop, plan the scheduling of a Centering Prayer Introductory Program or plan and facilitate the Continuing Sessions.

This section contains several articles on the history of Contemplative Outreach, the Christian Contemplative Tradition and Centering Prayer

- Part 2: Glossary, Bibliography, Anthologies, Scriptures

8. Identify any additional staff needed. Commissioned presenters may be needed to facilitate practicums or give model presentations of the four conferences. Chapter members who are not commissioned presenters may help with food or other administrative tasks.
9. Sample forms can be found beginning on page 16 of this document. These documents are suggestions only. No document needs to be sent to the CO office.
10. Identify if you will use powerpoint slides or flipcharts for the presentation of the conferences. Check that all necessary equipment is available and in working order. All necessary files can be found in the Leadership Resources section of the CO intranet.

E. Feedback considerations for Facilitators of the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer

You are serving in this role because you have experienced many blessings from the practice of Centering Prayer and are eager to share the prayer. The Participants come with the same intention but with varied learning styles and life experiences. Taking time to reflect on the general characteristics of the Participants can be a helpful exercise.

Each practicum provides an opportunity for the Participants to present one of the four conferences of a Centering Prayer Introductory Program. This opportunity is a very important step in becoming familiar with the material and how to present it. It is a step in the learning process and the Participants should not be expected to perform perfectly during their presentations. Many of them come with no experience in making presentations to a group and some feel a great deal of stress and anxiety. You, as Presenter Formation Facilitator, should have the goal of helping them prepare and succeed in this work. When they are commissioned as Presenters-in-Training they will continue the learning process with the help of a mentor.

Effective Presenters of the Centering Prayer Introductory Program develop a reflective practice of reviewing and critiquing their own presentations to use in setting goals for later presentations. Feedback is one aspect in the development of this reflective practice.

Effective feedback depends upon the Participant's readiness to hear what we have to say. It hinges on both the relationship between the Presenter Formation Facilitator and the Participant and the capacity to receive and apply the feedback. The Presenter Formation Facilitator may have a relationship with some or all of the Participants. For others, he/she has only a short time to establish a relationship with each Participant. He/she should strive to provide a safe environment that serves the presenter's best interests which is all about learning and improving the presentation.

Thank you for your willingness to serve as a Formation Facilitator. May this be a joyful and blessed experience for all.

F. Guidelines for Handling Grievances

1. When the applications are received the Facilitator of the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer contacts the person recommending the applicant to reconfirm the recommendation.
2. During the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer the participant and the staff member will discern how the participant can best serve the chapter. The majority of participants will move on to become Presenter-in-Training but some will choose other means of service or the staff will recommend additional mentoring before moving to Presenter-in-Training.
3. In the event that a participant is not recommended by the Presenter Formation Facilitator to become a Presenter-in-Training, the Facilitator contacts the Coordinator (or 12 Step leader) and provides background information regarding this recommendation.
4. The Coordinator follows up with the participant and continues to help this person discern if their gifts are better suited to another servant leader role OR to work with them to be ready at a later time to become a Presenter-in-Training.
5. When a Presenter-in-Training gives a presentation of one of the four conferences and the mentor decides it needs improvement the mentor may require the Presenter-in-Training to present it again at a later date. The mentor gives suggestions for improving the presentation.
6. In the unlikely event that a mentor decides he or she cannot approve a Presenter-in-Training to become a Commissioned Presenter, the mentor contacts the Coordinator (or 12 Step leader) and provides background information regarding this recommendation.
7. Any complaints following the Presenter Formation for Centering Prayer will be sent to the Coordinator of Volunteers.

G. Phase Two: Presenter-in-Training phase

The Presenter-in-Training will be assigned a Commissioned Presenter from their chapter to serve as mentor during this phase.

The mentor should contact, or preferably meet with, the Presenter-in-Training to discuss possible-presentation locations and dates needed for completion of training for full commissioning.

Each time the Presenter-in-Training successfully presents one of the four “Essential Conferences,” the Presenter-in-Training may note this on the Record of Presentations of the Four Conferences. If the Presenter-in-Training needs further help the mentor can give suggestions and ask them to present the conference at another time.

Ideally, the mentor is able to observe the presentations in person. But if that is not possible due to distance or other factors, other ways may be substituted such as: audio or video recording of the presentation, or by technology such as Skype. The mentor may ask a fully Commissioned Presenter to observe the presentations if he/she is unable to observe all four of the conference presentations.

Participants who will be presenting in the 12 Step Program need to attend additional training by a 12 Step Leader.

A Presenter-in-Training need not wait to practice skills until a Centering Prayer Introductory Program is offered.

Alternatives include:

- Present to a Centering Prayer groups as a refresher.
- Present at a full-day or half-day of prayer.
- Present to a group of Presenters or small group facilitators.
- Present at a leadership gathering as a spiritual enrichment opportunity.

H. Commissioning Process

After the Presenter-in-Training has successfully completed presentation of all four conferences during the training period (usually one year) and the Presenter-in-Training wishes to be commissioned:

- The mentor or Presenter-in-Training will notify the Chapter Coordinator or Contact Person.
- The Chapter Coordinator/Contact Person will complete the Request for Centering Prayer Commissioning Form for this new Commissioned Presenter. This form is only visible to Chapter Coordinators/Contact Persons and Presenter Formation Service Team members. This form is found on the CO website under Programs>Training. Please be sure you are logged in so you can view the form. The information requested includes the name, email address, mailing address, and phone number for the new Commissioned Presenter.
- The individual completing the form will provide their name and email address in the sections titled “Mentor Name” and “Mentor email” and will check the confirmation statement.

- If the Chapter Coordinator/Contact Person wishes to delegate to another person the completion of this form they should send the name and email address of their delegate to Margaret Swavely, Presenter Formation Service Team leader, at mbswavely@gmail.com. They can also send this information to the Presenter Formation Service Team member who has been their mentor. The delegate will be sent the link to the Request for Centering Prayer Commissioning Form.
- When this form is processed the new Commissioned Presenter will be recorded in the CO database and given access to the Presenter Formation and Centering Prayer materials found under Resources>Volunteer Resources on the CO website. They will also receive a Commissioning Letter by mail.
